(2) The President shall always, except in the case of the appointment of the Prime Minister or as otherwise required by the Constitution, act on the advice of the Prime Minister or of such other Minister as has been authorized by the Prime Minister to advise the President with regard to any function assigned to that Minister.

(3) The President may require the Prime Minister or other Minister giving advice to him or her under subsection (2), to reconsider such advice, but the President shall act on the advice given to him or her, after such reconsideration.

(4) No institution administering justice and no other institution, person or authority shall have the power or jurisdiction to inquire into, pronounce upon, or in any manner call in question, any act or omission of the President on the ground that he or she has not acted in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (2) or paragraph (3).”.

Replacement of Article 35 of the Constitution.

8. Article 35 of the Constitution is hereby repealed and the following Article substituted therefor:-

“Immunity of President from suit.

35. (1) Where any person holds office as President of the Republic of Sri Lanka, no civil or criminal proceedings shall be instituted or continued against him or her in respect of anything done or omitted to be done by him or her, either in his or her official or private capacity:

Provided that nothing in this paragraph shall be read and construed as restricting the right of any person to make an application under Article 126 against the Attorney General, in respect of anything done or omitted to be done by the President, in his or her official capacity.

(2) Where provision is made by law limiting the time within which proceedings of any description may be instituted against any person, a period of time during which such person holds the office of President of the Republic of Sri Lanka shall not be taken into account in calculating any period of time prescribed by that law.

(3) The immunity conferred by the provisions of paragraph (1) of this Article shall not apply to proceedings in the Supreme Court under Article 130 (a) relating to the election of the President or the validity of a referendum.”.

Replacement of Articles 37, 38, 39 and 40 of the Constitution.

9. Articles 37, 38, 39 and 40 of the Constitution are hereby repealed and the following Article is substituted therefor:-

“Acting President.

37.(1) Whenever the President is prevented by illness, absence from Sri Lanka or any other cause from exercising, performing or discharging the powers, duties and functions of the office of President the Chairperson of the Council of State shall act in the office of President of the Republic of Sri Lanka during such period. If the office of Chairperson of the Council of State be then vacant or the Chairperson of the Council of State is unable to act, the Speaker shall act in the office of President.

(2)The provisions of the Constitution (other than the provisions of paragraph (2) of Article 32) shall apply, insofar as they can be applied, to a person acting in the office of President.

Vacation of office by the President.

38. The office of the President of the Republic shall become vacant:-

- (a) upon his or her death;
- (b) on he or she resigning from office, by writing under his or her hand addressed to the Prime Minister;
- (c) on he or she ceasing to be a citizen of Sri Lanka;
- (d) on the unanimous determination of a Committee consisting of the Prime Minister, the Speaker and the Chief Justice, that the President is incapable of discharging the duties of his or her office by reason of physical or mental infirmity;
- (e) on Parliament passing a resolution by at least two thirds of the whole number of Members of Parliament (including those not present) voting in favour of a resolution of no-confidence against the President, introduced by a Member by written notice addressed to the Speaker, and signed by such Member and by at least half of the total number of Members of Parliament;
- (f) on the Supreme Court in the exercise of its powers under Article 130(a) , determining that his or her election as President was void and does not determine that any other person was duly elected as the President.

Determination
by the Supreme

39. (1) Where the Supreme Court in the exercise of its jurisdiction under Article 130 determines that:-

Court that President is not duly elected.

(a) the election of the President is void and does not determine that any other person was duly elected, then a vacancy shall be deemed to have occurred in the office of President and an election shall be held to fill such vacancy in accordance with Article 40, not later than one month from the date of such determination; or

(b) any other person was duly elected as the President, then, such other person shall assume the office of President within one month of the date of such determination.

(2) Upon the Supreme Court making any such determination as is referred to in paragraph (a) of this Article, the person who was exercising, performing and discharging the powers, duties and functions of the office of President shall forthwith cease to exercise, perform and discharge such powers, duties and functions. During the period intervening between the date of such determination and the assumption of office by the new President, the Chairperson of the Council of State shall act in the office of President:

Provided that if the office of the Chairperson of the Council of State be then vacant or the Chairperson of the Council of State is unable to act, the Speaker shall act in the office of President.

(3) For the purpose of paragraph (2) of Article 30 and notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (4) of Article 31, the term of office of the new President shall be deemed to have commenced on the date in which the term of office of the person whose election was determined to have been void or undue, would, but for such determination have commenced.

(4) The exercise, performance and discharge

by any person of the powers, duties and functions of the office of President, shall not be invalid by reason only of the fact that the Supreme Court subsequently determines that the election of such person as President was void or undue.

(5) The provisions of this Article shall apply notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Article 40.

Vacation of office by President and election of successor.

40. (1) (a) If the office of President shall become vacant prior to the expiration of his or her term of office, Parliament shall elect as President one of its Members who is qualified to be elected to the office of President. Any person so succeeding to the office of President shall hold office only for the unexpired period of the term of office of the President vacating office.

(b) The election of the President shall be held as soon as possible after, and in no case later than one month from, the date of occurrence of the vacancy. Such election shall be by secret ballot and by an absolute majority of the votes cast in accordance with such procedure as Parliament may by law provide:

Provided that if such vacancy occurs after the dissolution of Parliament, the President shall be elected by the new Parliament within one month of its first meeting

(c) During the period between the occurrence of such vacancy and the assumption of office by the new President the Chairperson of the Council of State shall act in the office of President:

Provided that if the office of Chairperson of the Council of State be then vacant or the Chairperson of the Council of State is unable to act, the Speaker shall act in the office of President

(2) The provisions of the Constitution relating to the President (other than the provisions of paragraph (2) of Article 32) shall apply, in so far as they can be applied, to an acting President.

(3) Parliament shall by law provide for all matters relating to the procedure for the election of the President by Parliament and all other matters necessary or incidental thereto. Until Parliament so provides, the Presidential Elections (Special Provisions) Act, No 2 of 1981 shall apply to such election.”.

Replacement
of Chapter VIIA
of the Constitution.

10. Chapter VIIA of the Constitution is hereby repealed and the following Chapter substituted therefor:-

“CHAPTER VIIA

THE EXECUTIVE

Constitutional Council

Council.

41A. (1) There shall be a Constitutional Council (in this Chapter referred to as the "Council") which shall consist of the following members:-

- (a) the Prime Minister;
- (b) the Speaker;
- (c) the Leader of the Opposition in Parliament;
- (d) one person appointed by the President;
- (e) five persons appointed by the President, on the nomination of both the Prime Minister and the Leader of the Opposition; and
- (f) one person nominated by agreement of the majority of the Members of Parliament belonging to political parties or independent groups, other than the respective political parties or independent groups to which the Prime Minister and the Leader of the Opposition belong, and appointed by the President.

(2) The Speaker shall be the Chairman of the Council.

(3) It shall be the duty of the Speaker to ensure that nominations for appointments under sub-paragraph (e) or sub-paragraph (f) of paragraph (1) of this Article are made, whenever an occasion for such nominations arises.

(4) In nominating the five persons referred to in sub paragraph (e) of paragraph (1) of this Article, the Prime Minister and the Leader of the Opposition shall consult the leaders of political parties and independent groups represented in Parliament so as to ensure that the Constitutional Council reflects the pluralistic character of Sri Lankan society, including professional and social diversity.

(5) The persons to be appointed or nominated as the case may be, under sub-paragraphs (d), (e) and (f) of paragraph (1) of this Article shall be persons of eminence and integrity who have distinguished themselves in public or professional life and who are not members of any political party.

(6) The President shall, within fourteen days of the receipt of a written communication specifying the nominations made under sub-paragraph (e) and (f) of paragraph (1) of this Article, make the necessary appointments. In the event of the President failing to make the necessary appointments within such period of fourteen days, the persons nominated shall be deemed to have been appointed as members of the Council, with effect from the date of expiry of such period.

(7) (a) On the dissolution of Parliament, notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (2) of Article 64, the Speaker shall continue to hold office as a member of the Council, until a Member of Parliament is elected to be the Speaker under paragraph (1) of the aforesaid Article;

(b) Notwithstanding the dissolution of Parliament, the Prime Minister and the Leader of the Opposition shall continue to hold office as members of the Council, until such time after a General Election following such dissolution, a Member of Parliament is appointed as Prime Minister or recognized as the Leader of the Opposition in Parliament as the case may be.

(8) Every member of the Council appointed under sub-paragraphs (d), (e) and (f) of paragraph (1) of this Article, shall hold office for a period of five years from the date of appointment as such member, unless he or she earlier resigns his or her office by writing addressed to the President, is removed from office by the President on both the Prime Minister and the Leader of the Opposition forming an opinion that such member is physically or mentally incapacitated and is unable to function further in office or is convicted by a court of law for any offence involving moral turpitude or if a resolution for the imposition of civic disability upon him or her has been passed in terms of Article 81 of the Constitution or is deemed to have vacated his or her office under paragraph (7) of Article 41E.

(9) In the event of there being a vacancy among the members appointed under sub-paragraphs

(d), (e)) or (f)) of paragraph (1) of this Article, the President shall, within two weeks of the occurrence of such vacancy and having regard to the provisions of the aforementioned sub-paragraphs, appoint another person to succeed such member. Any person so appointed, shall hold office during the unexpired part of the period of office of the member whom he or she succeeds.

(10) A member appointed under sub-paragraphs (d), (e) or (f) of paragraph (1) of this Article, shall not be eligible for re-appointment under those sub-paragraphs.

(11) The appointments made by the President under, sub-paragraphs (d), (e) and (f) of paragraph (1) of this Article, shall be communicated to the Speaker.

Council to recommend appointments.

41B. (1) No person shall be appointed by the President as the Chairman or a member of any of the Commissions specified in the Schedule to this Article, except on a recommendation of the Council.

(2) The provisions of paragraph (1) of this Article shall apply in respect of any person appointed to act as the Chairman or as a member of any such Commission.

(3) It shall be the duty of the Council to recommend to the President fit and proper persons for appointment as Chairmen or members of the Commissions specified in the Schedule to this Article, whenever the occasion for such appointments arises ,and such recommendations shall endeavour to ensure that such recommendations reflect the pluralistic character of Sri Lankan society, including gender. In the case of the Chairmen of such Commissions, the Council shall recommend three persons for appointment, and the President shall appoint one of the persons recommended as Chairman.

(4) The President shall appoint the Chairmen and the members of the Commissions specified in the Schedule to this Article within fourteen days of receiving the recommendations of the Council for such appointments. In the event of the President failing to make the necessary appointments within such period of fourteen days, the persons recommended shall be deemed to have been appointed as the Chairman or member, as the case may be, with effect from the date of expiry of such period.

(5) No person appointed under paragraph (1) of this Article or a person appointed to act as the Chairman or a member of any such Commission, shall be removed except as provided for in the Constitution or in any law, and where there is no such provision, such person shall be removed by the President only with the prior approval of the Council.
